

The Oxford College of Arts

The Oxford College of Arts had organized a webinar on the topic titled 'Child Labour - Issues and concerns – Role of society' which was held on 9th July from 12 noon to 1pm, conducted by Dr. Vani Kantli-Freelancer [Former Program Co-ordinator – Bachpan Bachao Andolan]. The webinar took place on the platform of Google meet.

The session began with a welcome speech given by Ms. Minnu Maria Jose, Assistant Professor of Psychology department, then it was taken over by the speaker Dr. Vani Kantli. She started the session by talking of Myths about child labour. She further explained what exactly is child labour and who hire child labour. At last she shared information about various acts that were enacted to stop child labour, also a toll free complaint number was provide.

The session was ended with a vote of thanks given by Ms. Gopika and expressed her gratitude towards the management for their constant support and encouragement for conducting such enriching sessions.

maria jose is presenting

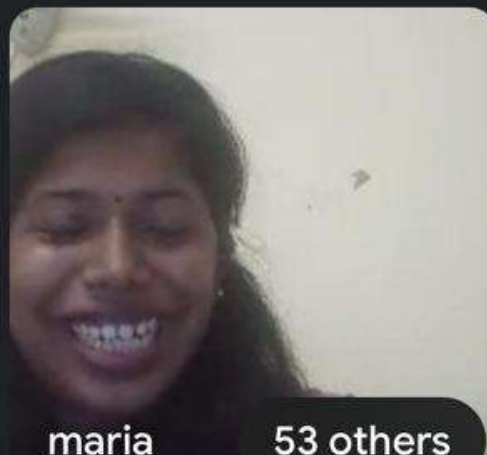

Vani

ASHWINI

You

maria

53 others

- Section 75 : punishment for cruelty to children
- Section 79 : exploitation of child employee
- Whoever ostensibly engages a child and keeps him in bondage for the purpose of employment or withholds his earnings or uses such earning for his own purpose shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to 5 yrs. and shall also be liable to fine 1 lakh rupees .

Juvenile Justice (care and protection) Act - 2015

Activate Windows
Go to Settings to activate Windows.

1:07

VoLTE VoWiFi 241.8 K/s 54

epw-mnzm-ziw

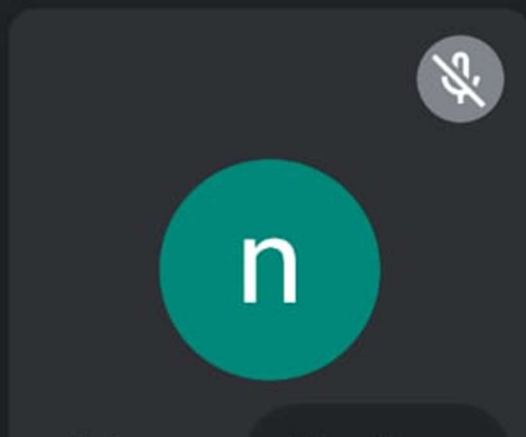

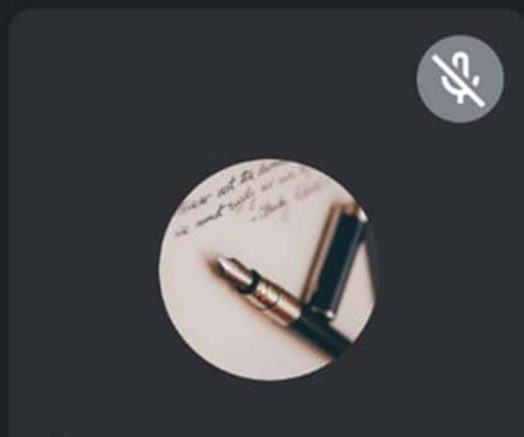

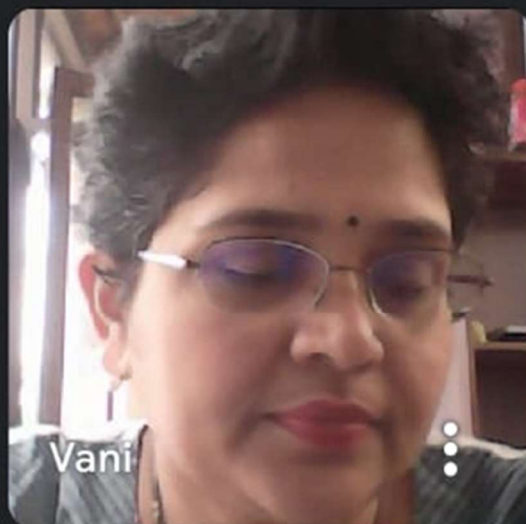

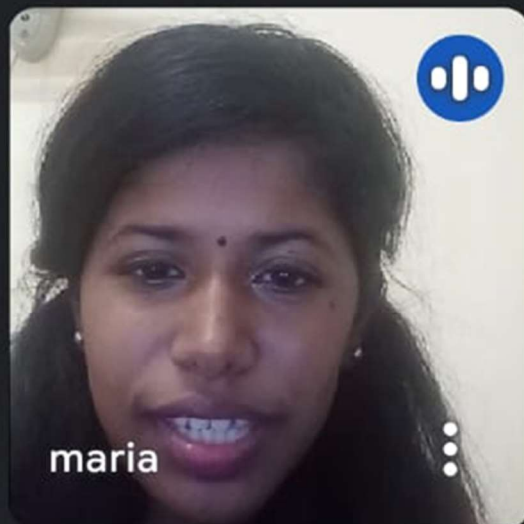

Child and teen info & presentation - Microsoft PowerPoint

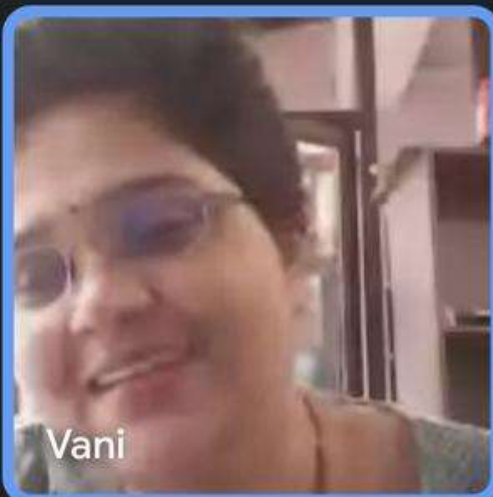

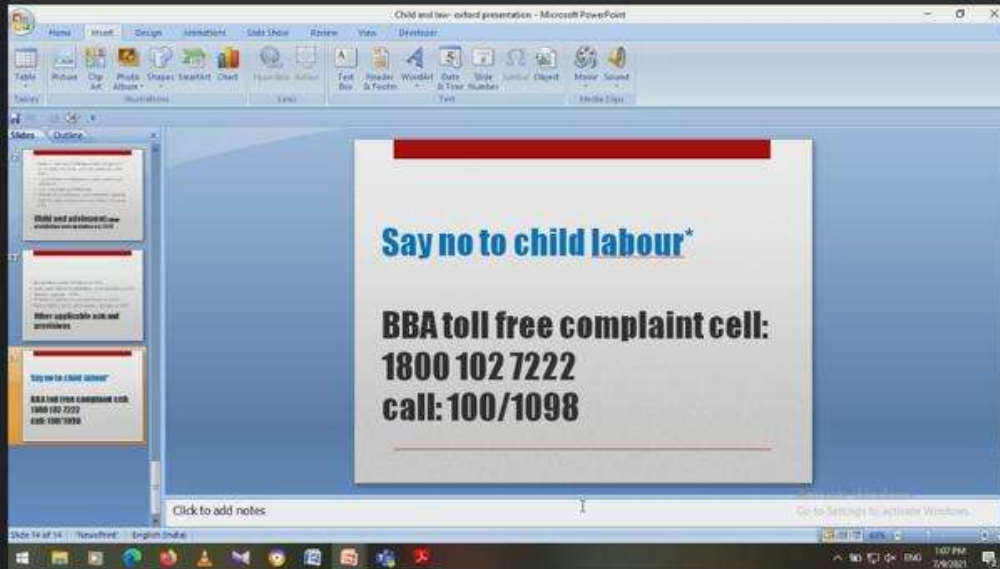

Say no to child labour

BBA toll free complaint cell:
1800 102 7222
call: 100/1098

maria is presenting

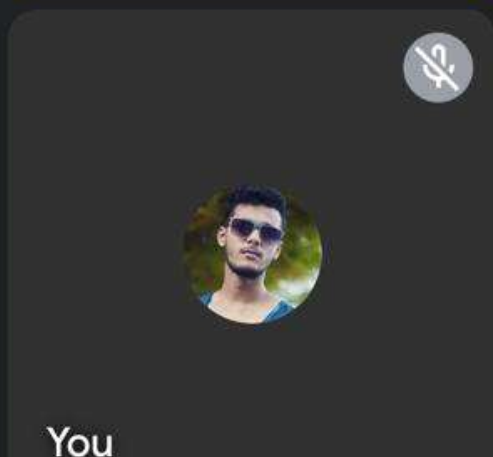

maria jose is presenting

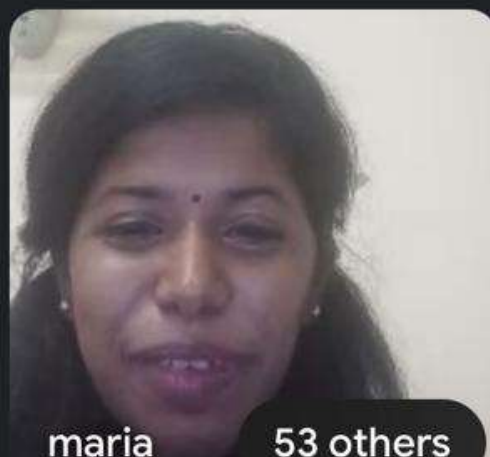

Vani

ASHWINI

You

maria

53 others