

Event: International Youth Day and Patriotic Day

Date: 14/8/2018

Venue: The Oxford College of Arts

Event Coordinator: Ms. Aditi S and Ms Padmalatha SV

Student Members: Fardeen, Dheraj, Jobin, Chiranjeeb, Sabrina, Sai Varali

Report:

International Youth Day and Patriotic Day were celebrated together on the 14th of August 2018, to mark Independence Day and International Youth Day. The students had organized both literary and cultural activities to mark this day. The literary activities included creative writing, lecture competition, pick and speak and quiz. Students from The Oxford College of Science and The Oxford College of Management took part in the literary activities. During the lunch break there was a cultural programme by the students of The Oxford College of Arts. This included a classical dance performance by Bhumika and Vani, a song by Dheeraj and finally a mono act by Chiranjeev. The students and faculty were dressed in Yellow, the color of Youth to mark this day. Certificates were distributed to the winners of various competitions.

Event: Independence Day

Date: 15/8/2018

Venue: Quadrangle

Event Coordinator: Mr. Manjanna & Mr. Siddlinga Swamy

Student Members: Vishwak, Pavan R

Report:

The 71st Independence Day of the country was celebrated on the 15th of August 2018. Dr. Vedamurthy was Chief Guest on this occasion. The programme began with the hoisting of the flag by the Chief Guest. This was followed by the National Anthem. Students shared their view on India's independence through speeches in Kannada, Hindi and English. As part of the celebrations students sang patriotic songs and there was a dance performance to a medley of patriotic songs. Dr. Vedamurthy and Ms. Mamatha K addressed the gathering. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks from the students. The entire programme was conceived and organized by The Oxford College of Science, Arts and Management students. Despite the heavy rain a large number of students and faculty members participated in the event with great patriotic spirit.

Event: Teachers Day

Date: 5/9/2017

Venue: The Oxford College of Arts

Event Coordinator:

Student Members: Fardeen, Dheeraj, Umashini

Report:

Teachers Day was celebrated by the students of The Oxford College of Arts on the 5th of September 30 2017. The students and teachers gathered in the Psychology Lab for the celebrations. The programme began with a video presentation of all the teachers made by the students. This was followed by students both Indian and Foreign talking about their experiences with the teachers at The Oxford College of Arts. The gathering was addressed by the Principal as well. The students had ordered a huge cake which they requested all the teachers to cut together. This was followed by high tea.

Event: Fresher's Day

Date: 15.09.2017

Venue: Auditorium

Event Coordinator: Ms. Aditi S & Ms. Smitha

Student Members: Final and Second Year Students

Report:

Freshers day was organized by the seniors to welcome the fresh batch of 2017-18. The theme for the day was Retro and Cocktail. The new comers were asked to dress according to the theme. The seniors and faculty members were asked to dress in Black/Red/Both. The seniors had organized an entertaining cultural program and interesting games for all present. The new batch was asked to introduce themselves along with the talents they have. Lunch was organized by the senior batches to everyone. The post lunch session consisted of host of games and the students were invited to the dance floor.

Event: Ayudha Pooja

Date: 28/9/2017

Venue: Psychology Lab

Event Coordinator: Ms Mamatha K

Student Members: Bhumika, Vani, Pradeep, Om Ganesh

Report:

Ayudha Pooja was celebrated on Friday 29th September 2017. A corner of the Psychology lab was made into a make-shift Pooja area, where the photos of various Gods were placed for the Pooja. Students decorated the Psychology lab and made colorful Rangolis. Students also anointed all the lab equipment with a paste of turmeric and kumkum. The equipment in the Mass Communication studio was also anointed in a similar manner. The principal of The Oxford College of Arts Ms. Mamatha presided over the Pooja, along with all faculty members. They sought the blessings of the Almighty on the College. After the Pooja, prasada of puffed rice and sweets was distributed to everyone.

Event: Colour Days

Date: 25.10.17 to 26.10.17

Venue: The Oxford College of Arts

Event Coordinator: Ms. Smitha

Student Members: Sheetal and Sharmitha

Report:

The color week culminated with the celebration of Ethnic Day. The student coordinators decided on colours for two days. 25.10.17 was Green or Blue and 26.10.2017 was Black/Yellow. Decided colours were announced in all classes. Students along with teachers had come dressed in the give colours. Some were in one specific colour and some had combination of both the colours. Students enjoyed being in one colour together. They celebrated by taking pictures and posting it in social media. Enthusiasm in being similar colour on same day continued in their respective classes with more discussions on importance of colours and colours adding to life.

Event: Ethnic Day

Date: 27.10.2017

Venue: The Oxford College of Arts

Event Coordinator: Ms. Smitha

Student Members: Sheetal and Sharmitha

Report:

The color week culminated with the celebration of Ethnic Day. The students were dressed in their traditional wear. Traditional dresses from the North East to that of Kerala were showcased with elegance by the students. Both boys and girls participated in this with equal enthusiasm. The entire College saw a riot of colours and was abuzz with excitement. The students met and explained their traditional clothes to each other. This was followed by a lengthy photo session in order to preserve the memories of this vibrant day.