

Nitesh Girish Gowda

The Oxford is an inspirational places for Journalism students. It's an unique environmental platform, which provides students with abundance of opportunities along with intense learning facilities with world class amenity, lab and equipments.

I feel so proud and thankful, when I look back at the high standards and amenity provided in terms of education. In one word I had the best joyful time in Oxford, which thought me several lessons to lead me life in a successful manner.

Thanks for all the professors and seniors of Oxford college for taking me through a right path