

National Service Scheme (NSS)

National Service Scheme (NSS) was launched during the Mahatma Gandhi's centenary year i.e., 1969. The NSS unit of The Oxford College of Arts started on 13th July 2021. The main aim of NSS is "Development of student personality through Community Service". In order to fulfil this objective, student Volunteers and Program functionaries are engaged in constructive and productive programs involving students in various awareness drives like Shramdaan, Social reforms, Communal harmony, creation of community assets, relief work, blood donation, environmental protection, eradication of child labour, adult literacy programs, health education campaigns etc., Under the scheme, each volunteer contributes 240 hours of community work during the period of a year.

MOTTO "NOT ME BUT YOU"

The motto expresses the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for selfless service and considerations towards fellow human being.

It underlines that welfare of an individual ultimately depends on the welfare of the society as a whole and therefore the aim of NSS is to demonstrate its motto in its day to day activities.

NSS volunteers work hard day and night to ensure that everyone in the society who is needy gets every possible help from NSS so that they can also reach their standards and lead a life of dignity.
