CHAIRMAN'S DESK

On behalf of my teaching fraternity, and staff it gives me immense pleasure to welcome you to Oxford via this website. I am truly elated to be acquainted with you and to facilitate your successful educational pursuit.

The Oxford Educational Institution's journey was envisaged by a school teacher who became the founding chairman, late Sri. S. Narasa Raju. The group of institutions has grown by leaps and bounds and attained milestones: we have 36 institutions including a medical college under its ambit.

I am ecstatic in articulating my conviction that the Oxford Institutions will continue its pursuit of the highest standard of academic excellence. At Oxford, our faculty and staff members are committed and determined to ensure students' success.

We give priority to our key stakeholders – our students - by creating opportunities and thereby inspiring them to achieve their goals in life. We are focused on three core principles – Education, research, and social involvement and we imbibe all three in our commitment to the students and other stakeholders.

I welcome you once again and encourage you to visit our exquisite campus, get to know our students, staff, dedicated faculty, and witness the facilities and opportunities that Oxford provides.

PRINCIPAL'S DESK

The changing paradigms have made it mandatory for an academic institution to foster a new breed of professionals and expose the best minds we have, to the outer world that awaits to test and absorb the talent radiating from every individual.

At TOCBM, we believe that students are at the core of our learning universe and are thus provided a holistic learning environment assimilating best practices and content. This holistic learning experience equips our students with the required skills to succeed in their personal and professional lives.

We aim at strengthening existing skills and core competencies of the students at the same time encouraging and broadening their scope of knowledge. We believe in the concept of 'learning by doing' and hence industry interaction and live projects are strongly encouraged and facilitated by the college. Regular sessions from industry experts, entrepreneurs and professionals are organized to provide students direct exposure to the working of the industry.

The distinguished faculty which forms the most impacting clout in academia and consulting circles, regularly guide students in improving as per industry requirement to ensure updated and required academic delivery. We nurture the best business talents and we look forward to forging stronger bonds of co-operation.

While a student, I gained the necessary skills to advance my career as an Internal Auditor. A great deal of concepts that I picked up at the institute, especially helped me in my professional life. In my experience at KPMG Global Services and at ABB, I have come across many situations where I have applied my learning. I would highly recommend enthusiastic students to enroll for various programs available and get an enriching learning experience.

To any new student coming to the College, I would say this: “Throw yourself at every opportunity that comes your way”. By participating in the inter-college and intra-college events conducted by the college, I have established my leadership, time management, and team skills and have also been able to advance these skills to a whole new augment level. If it gets too much, you can always scale back, but those opportunities can make all the difference between getting what you want and having to settle for second best.

The Oxford College of Business Management has been instrumental in not only my career but also my overall growth as a student. The faculty was ever so ready to help and guide me be it academics or extracurricular activities. The college has provided me with the opportunities, which shaped my journey of going from being a person with stage fright and low confidence to becoming the president of the student council while maintaining a good academic record.
