

Orientation Visits for the Batch 2022

1. Orientation Visit to Hakki Pikki Tribal Colony

The 1st semester students have visited to Hakki Pikki Tribal Colony as a part of orientation visit and have explored into the life, issues and challenges of HakkiPikki Tribe and Iruliga Tribe. The students have observed and visited homes and conversed with the people of the colony to know the information through primary source.

2. Orientation Visit to Child Rights Trust

MSW students from 1st Year have visited Child Rights Trust. The students were made aware of Rights of the Children and how the Trust works on various projects for care and protection of children. The students had interactive session on different cases.

3. Orientation Visit to Souharda Family Counseling Centre

The Students visited the agency which works as Family Counseling Centre. Students explored the activities and process of counseling and major family dynamics requiring the counseling. The Students attended the session which was interactive. Students explored problems, rights and privileges of women and how the intervention has to be done with professional support.

4. Orientation Visit to Abalashrama

The students made a visit to Abalashrama, an agency functions for abandoned, destitute and orphan girls and women and their rehabilitation, resettlement and empowerment.. The students attended the session on discussion of abandonment, destitution, and orphan. They informed the students of services they provide for the women and girls in the Abalashrama.

5. Orientation Visit to Stree Jagruti Samithi

The Students from 1st year MSW visited Stree Jagruti Samithi which works for Domestic Workers. Students were made aware of problems of Domestic Workers and Rights and legislation and welfare programs for protection and development of them.

6. Orientation Visit to Children's Home for Boys

The students visited Children's Home and learnt about maintenance of children in need of care and protection. Students learnt how this agency operationalizing the objectives and provisions of JJ act, CARA and Integrated Child Protection Scheme. The students visited inmates in the Home and observed their activities.

7. Orientation Visit to Swathi Mane

The Students have visited Swathi Mane NGO working for Community health and financial support through micro finance. The students were informed of different projects by the agency which mobilize and enable the community for empowerment.

8. Orientation visit to Karnataka State Council for Child Welfare

The students visited the KSCCW the non-profit organization working for helping and serving less privileged children from urban and rural communities in Karnataka. The students had interactive session on various issues of children and how NGO provides support services for their welfare.

9. Orientation Visit to Talaash Association

The students visited the Talaash Association, the organization working for rescue and protection of Child, and Women Trafficking. The Coordinator of the Agency informed the students how they work on process of tracking, tracing, rescuing and protecting the trafficked child and how the organization coordinates with police and legal support.